

Intarga manages the workflows and processes of coverholder approval, due diligence and monitoring, as well as audit management and binding authority management. By configuring a company's workflows so that they mirror their own processes and procedures, Intarga makes information easy to glean and simple to monitor. Intarga micro-manages: it not only assigns tasks to the relevant department or individual, but, by providing an audit trail, tracks performance. Intarga even provides diary alerts to highlight deadlines, ensuring you know what needs to be done, when and by whom.
